

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat Cast List

PLEASE READ BEFORE VIEWING

I'm serious, PLEASE read this.

Casting is a puzzle that takes hard work to put together. The fact is that multiple people are talented enough to be the puzzle piece we're looking for. The problem is we can only put one piece in its place. So many things are considered: availability, grades, the short production window, and the list could go on. We were amazed at the talented people that auditioned and hope this snag in your theatre journey doesn't stop you. TRY AGAIN, come to theatre events, we'd love to have you in our theatre family; there are many ways to participate. You are valuable and loved!

Please read thoroughly, you may have multiple characters. Our first Rehearsal will be for everyone Monday, February 27th at 3:00 in the auditorium.

Please email christa.harding@ccsdut.org to accept your role and to get your email address on the cast and crew email list.
