Management, Supervisory And Confidential Personnel

Management, supervisory and confidential positions are generally classified as follows:
(Government Code 3540.1)

1. Management and supervisory employees are those having significant responsibilities for formulating district policies or administering district programs and who serve in a position which the Board of Trustees has legally designated as a management position.
2. Confidential employees are those who are required to develop or present management positions with respect to employer-employee relations or whose duties normally require access to confidential information that is used to contribute significantly to the development of management positions.

Senior Management of the Classified Service

A senior management employee is either a fiscal advisor to the Superintendent or an employee in the highest position not requiring certification in a principal district program area, with districtwide responsibility for formulating policy or administering the program.
(Education Code 45108.5)

Employees designated as senior management are part of the classified service and shall have the same rights, benefits and duties except the right to permanent status in these positions. (Education Code 45100.5)
