

Classroom Level Continuum of Responses

Type One Behavioral Violations

Level A – Initial or repeated minor violations

Teacher or school personnel:

- Teacher or school personnel reteaches behavioral expectations
- Teacher or school personnel selects and implements a classroom intervention strategy, monitors and documents progress, and modifies or implements a new intervention if not showing success.
- Teacher or school personnel selects and implements restorative justice practices.
- Teacher or school personnel notifies the student’s parent(s) or guardian(s).

Administrative Level Continuum of Responses

Type Two Behavioral Violations

Level B – Unsuccessful attempts at Level A or identified behavioral violations.

Teacher or school personnel:

- Continue all Level A interventions
- Teacher or school personnel create a behavior referral
- Attempt restorative justice practices

Administrator or Designee:

- Administration or Support Professional provides classroom support
- Administration notifies student’s parent(s) or guardian(s).
- Administration investigates the evidence
- Consider detention

Level C – Unsuccessful attempts at Level B or identified behavioral violations

Administrator or Designee:

- Continue all Level B interventions
- Consider In-School Suspension
- Consider Behavior Intervention Class

Level D – Unsuccessful attempts at Level C or identified behavioral violations

Administrator or Designee:

- Continue all Level C interventions
- Consider Short-Term Suspension
- Initiate RMT/Tier II referral

Threat Level Continuum of Responses

Type Three Behavioral Violations

Level E – Unsuccessful attempts at Level D or identified behavioral violations

Administrator or Designee:

- Continue all Level D interventions

- Consider long-term suspension (not K-4)
- Initiate a Threat Assessment
- Consider police cooperation

Level F – Unsuccessful attempts at Level E or identified behavior violations

Administrator or Designee:

- Continue all Level E interventions
- Consider Expulsion (not K-4)

Level G – Firearm

Administrator or Designee:

- Mandatory police involvement
- Mandatory Expulsion
- Mandatory Threat Assessment

Adoption Date: 08.19.2021

Mabton School District

Revised Dates: 08.19.2021