

ENGLISH I HONORS SUMMER READING

The ninth grade Honors (formally known as Pre-AP), English class is designed to prepare students for the demands of the eleventh and twelfth grade college-level Advanced Placement courses.

Students must be:

“Academically talented, imaginative students who read with finesse and write with clarity and style, who are curious and responsive to academic risk-taking, and who are not deterred by hard work.”

This assignment is due during the first two weeks of class:

REQUIRED READING & ASSIGNMENT

ANTHEM by AYN RAND

Directions: You must complete the following components.

1. Read ANTHEM, a novella by Ayn Rand.
2. Annotate the entire novel in a manner that enhances your understanding. If you purchase your own book you can annotate directly in the novel. Please use sticky notes, or a real/digital notebook if you borrowed a book from the school. Possible notations include:
 - a. Plot structure and development
 - i. Conflicts, internal and external
 - ii. Foreshadowing, etc.
 - b. Tone
 - c. Characterization (direct and indirect)
 - d. Devices
 - i. Imagery
 - ii. Symbols
 - iii. Word choice (diction)
 - iv. Sentence structure (syntax)
 - e. Theme
3. After reading the novel, create 3 essential questions that you feel Rand wants her readers to consider or answer in response to her novel, and notate passages that prompted the questions.
4. In the second week of class, there will be a reading check quiz on ANTHEM, and you will write short answer responses.

Note: You will not be able to refer to the novel for the reading check quiz, but you will be able to use your annotations for the short answer responses.
