

The 2023-2024 School-Parent Compact has outlined how parents, the school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improving student academic achievement. The purpose of this compact is to develop a partnership to connect learning at home and learning at school.

As a parent/caregiver, _____ I will strive to:

- See that my child attends school regularly and provides documentation when absences occur
- Monitor my child's progress and communicate with him/her daily about school
- Check with my child for information sent home, promptly respond as needed
- Engage in school functions and parent-teacher conferences
- Encourage the positive use of leisure time through STEM related activities
- Provide a time and place for my child to complete homework/virtual assignments, study, and read
- Communicate with the teacher frequently to find out how my child is doing in school
- Be aware and supportive of school mission, vision, and beliefs

As a teacher, _____ I will strive to:

- Create a classroom environment that supports collaboration, creativity/innovation, character/citizenship, communication, critical thinking, and celebration.
- Assist students with SMART Goal setting as well as set self SMART Goals
- Have an annual meeting to review the School-Parent Compact and school level Parent Involvement Plan
- Hold parent-teacher conferences 4 times a year and more often if needed
- Maintain open lines of communication with students and parents
- Facilitate student led conferences to communicate current progress
- Collaborate with all staff members to support academic, emotional, and social needs for students

As a student, _____ I will strive to:

- Be an active participant in SMART Goal setting
- Share progress at student-led conferences
- Make every attempt to complete virtual assignments if remote learning is implemented
- Show respect for myself, my school, and other people by adhering to RTI2-B practices
- Engage in collaboration, creativity/innovation, character/citizenship, communication, critical thinking, and celebration
- Be a positive representative for my House (Amica, Aequitas, Salutem, Viribus)
- Learn from failures and ask for help when needed
