

Columbia Central High School Athletic Hall of Fame Announces 2020 Class

Columbia, TN- August 10, 2020 The Columbia Central Athletic Hall of Fame is pleased to announce the 2020 class of inductees:

Jerie Alexander- Class of 1998
Fred Jenkins- Class of 1983
James Kelly- Class of 1969
Jimmy Linville- Class of 1954
Regan Peebles- Class of 1961
Daniel Ugglá- Class of 1998
Hal Wantland- Class of 1962
Mid-Tennessee Bone & Joint Clinic, Jeff and Tina Adams- Contributors
Jerry Sweeney- Contributor

Each of these individuals made their impact felt at Columbia Central High School and, in many cases, on courts and fields in college and professional athletics. The Columbia Central Athletic Hall of Fame is especially grateful to the Adams and Sweeney families who have been dedicated supporters of our athletic programs for over 25 years.

It is the Hall of Fame committee's goal to recognize the greatest contributions to Columbia Central Athletics. Therefore, in addition to the aforementioned individuals the following state championship teams will be recognized and inducted as a part of the 2020 Columbia Central Athletic Hall of Fame class:

2004 Girl's Bowling
2008 Boy's Bowling
2010 Football

This year's Hall of Fame induction ceremony is scheduled for October 22nd, 2020 and further details will be released at a later date.
