

Scholarship honors fallen Maury County Hero

The Andrew P. Carpenter Detachment #1286 of the Marine Corps League continues to offer an annual scholarship to a graduating Maury County public high school senior under the Lance Cpl. Andrew P. Carpenter Memorial Honor Scholarship.

Daniel Deloreto Jr, Commandante of the Andrew P. Carpenter Detachment #1286 Marine Corps League announces that due to availability of funds three (3) scholarships will be offered again this year: $1000 and $500. The scholarship was established in the memory of U. S. Marine Lance Cpl. Andrew P. Carpenter of Columbia, Tn., who died Feb.19, 2011, while conducting combat operations in Helmand Province, Afghanistan. The scholarship has the blessing of Andrew's widow Crissie and his parents Kevin and Cindy Carpenter and family,

"The legacy of Lance Cpl. Andrew P. Carpenter's name will continue thru this Scholarship" Deloreto said.

The Detachment also has an additional scholarship: $500 Margaret "Marge" Lasky Langford Memorial Honor Nursing Scholarship.
