MHS Students Visit Colleges - In the Lobby!

By Isabella Polanco

It's fall! And it's that time of year again. No, I'm not talking about watching the Jets and Giants. For seniors and juniors, it's time to begin choosing which college to attend. On Tuesday, October 11th, the guidance department sponsored its third college fair. According to Ms. Turner, Mineola belongs to a consortium of schools who participate, and for each fair, different groups of colleges come. Because of this, junior and seniors have the chance to meet with admissions representatives from all over the country. The fair is broken up into two sessions. Students can attend either session during free periods, or get a pass from guidance to go during class. The next college fair is in Tuesday October 18th and the
