

Ninth Grade

Advanced World History: 1500 to the Present

Advanced World History: 1500 to the Present may be taken in place of the regular class. The advanced class addresses all of the standards listed previously and goes a step further in their implementation. The advanced class is characterized by the following:

- an examination of topics in more depth
- an increased emphasis on higher level/critical thinking skills
- additional outside reading assignments
- more emphasis on reading and writing skills through writing of essays and analysis of information from various sources such as primary documents
