

MBHS Grade Distributions by Class through May of 2023

Grade distributions are specific to a student's graduating class and change at the end of each semester. The highest weighted GPA in the class is noted in the first section of the bar graph. A grade distribution that includes grades through the end of junior year will be provided to colleges as part of the MBHS profile when a student applies to college senior year.

