

Your Junior Year

Is my Junior Year the MOST Important?

- What about weighted and unweighted GPA?
- Who writes recommendations?
- Junior Evaluation Form
- I need a scholarship.

What about testing?

- When should I plan to take the ACT and/or SAT?
- When are the tests offered?
- How do I sign up?
  - ACT Test
  - The College Board- SAT Test
- How do I prepare?
- Should I take a class? Where?
  - MBHS website

what about college?

- How can I meet with a college representative?
  - Calendar of College Visits
- How do I sign up for a college visit on Family Connection?
  - Family Connection
- What about campus visits?
- Additional questions?

what's my next step?

1. Know Yourself
2. Study Occupations
3. Plan your high school coursework
4. Develop good study habits
5. Make good grades
6. Invest in meaningful activities

Quality > Quantity

7. Select your college/vocational school choices
8. Visit colleges and Schools
9. Learn about college acceptance
10. Plan your finances
11. Prepare for application procedures early

HAVE FUN by MAKING SMART CHOICES!

Suicide Awareness and Prevention