

The Weekly Howler

A remote learning weekly bulletin for students of Mill Valley Middle School

Wednesday, May 20, 2020

Vol I, Issue 5

Howls of the Week

Congrats to Quinlyn Kennel for winning the 8th Grade Graduation T-Shirt Design Contest! One of the ways we are honoring our 8th graders this year, is for them to receive a t-shirt with all the names of the Class of 2020 on the back, with a student design on the front (thank you, PTSA!). There were over 20 submissions, and some of the designs will also be featured in the 8th grade video.

This Week's Howling!

Students, we know how hard you all have been working during these challenging and unprecedented times. We are continually impressed with how well you all have responded to remote learning, and we are all grateful to you and your families. We are all in this together. Keep working hard for the remaining three weeks of school. If you need any support, be sure to check with your teacher or counselor. Our counselors have a wonderful resource page for our MVMS community.

Highlighting our Howlers

Call for Art! Kiddo Online Art Show! Ms. Leonard, Ms. Tran, and Ms. Thiel want to celebrate your creative accomplishments this year with an online Art Show! In coordination with Kiddo, we invite all Art students to participate in our Mill Valley School District Online Art Collection. Please submit a photo of your favorite artwork from a Remote Learning Lesson as a jpeg attachment to MVKidsArtShare@kiddo.org. (Deadline to submit: Friday, May 22. This is not a juried show and all appropriate work will be included. Please remove visible names from your artwork). Contact your Art teacher for more information.

Announcements

- Be sure to check Grade Level Google Classroom for announcements
- All information around Remote learning can be found here (on our webpage)
- Howl at 8:00 for all our essential workers!