- Each completed row (Bingo) gets you one entry to the Grand Prize drawing.

- ★ Audiobooks count too!
- ★ Graphic novels/Manga count- I have non-fiction and classics in the Graphic Novel section of the Library
- ★ Utilize the County Library for great book selection. Sign up for their reading program at the same time as your Nestucca reading challenge.
- ★ If you need books during the summer, you can “check them out” by writing your name, the name of the book, and the library barcode on the clipboard designated for this at my desk.
- ★ If you move over the summer, make sure to bring back your books. There is almost always someone around.

Shabanu: Daughter of the Wind by Suzanne Fisher Staples

Mrs. Elder

Huckleberry Finn is probably my all-time favorite.

Diary of Anne Frank

The Witch of Blackbird Pond (pretty low-level, but one of my favorite books from long ago)

To Kill a Mockingbird

The Outsiders

Educated by Tara Westover

The Tattooist of Auschwitz

All the Light We Cannot See (by Anthony Doerr)

The Kite Runner

Ms. Leja

Mine are all death themed!

1) 'In Cold Blood' by Truman Capote. It was actually the only book I really enjoyed in high school.

2) 'Smoke Gets in Your Eyes,'

3) 'Will my Cat Eat my Eyeballs?'

4) 'From Here to Eternity'- all 3 by Caitlyn Doughty.

5) 'Stiff: The Curious Lives of Human Cadavers' by Mary Roach

6) 'Death's Acre: Inside the Legendary Forensic Lab the Body Farm Where the Dead do Tell Tales', by Bill Bass (my all time favorite book)

7) 'A Father's Story,' by Lionel Dahmer

I had to read all of those for my thesis and they were sometimes sad, but really well written and informative and really fun to read.
