Scholarship Application

Deadline: Please submit application by March 30, 2024

Purpose Statement

The purpose of scholarship through Kappa Upsilon Zeta Scholarship Foundation, Inc. is to provide financial assistance to matriculating minority female college students in pursuit of self-improvement through education. It is our fervent prayer that the award is received with a spirit of thanksgiving and utilized to support the aspirations of its recipient.

Grace Shallowhorn “Silver Belle” Graduate Scholarship - $1,000:

Grace Shallowhorn became a member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated in 1954 while attending college in New York City. She truly exemplified the sorority’s founding principles of Scholarship, Community Service, Sisterly Love, and Finer Womanhood. She served the sorority for over 50 years. Grace was one of five Zetas responsible for the charting of Kappa Upsilon Zeta Chapter and a two-time recipient of Kappa Upsilon Zeta Chapter’s Longevity Award. She was crowned Zeta of the Year in 1998 and is the chapter’s first and only “Silver Belle”; the highest honor a chapter can bestow on an elder member. The recipient of the Grace Shallowhorn Graduate Scholarship displays characteristics of Finer Womanhood, Sisterly Love, has a strong academic foundation and the ability to follow through on her goals no matter what obstacles cross her path.
