How can a parent help their child learn and make progress?

Engaging with your child about school and what they are learning is pivotal to their learning process.

- Ask questions daily about your child’s school day.
- Inquire about topics and assignments they are learning.
- Connect with teachers to understand your child’s progress.
- Ask the teachers how you can help your child learn.
- Attend different events at your child’s school to stay connected and learn how to support them.
- Collaborating with teachers to address any academic or behavioral concerns.
- Attending Parent-Teacher conferences and staying engaged in school activities.
- Exploring extracurricular interests and encouraging a love for learning beyond the classroom.

Parent Guides for Academic Standards:

The following grade level guides contain information to support parents and caregivers with understanding the North Carolina Standard Course of Study. The purpose of these guides is to inform parents about the standards, as well as provide useful strategies to incorporate at home.

such as reading and/or math when compared with other students of their age, or in their grade level, experience, or environment.

In Northampton County Schools, students are often provided the following services:

- Differentiated curriculum and instruction with flexible student groups;
- Accelerated opportunities Enrichment experiences, which may be during the school day or beyond, and may be within the regular calendar year or may include summer opportunities; and
- Other opportunities for extension of content standard.

AIG students may receive services either from specialized AIG personnel or from teachers within regular classrooms who are trained to cater to the needs of gifted students.

The Northampton County Schools Local AIG Plan outlines specific opportunities for differentiated, rigorous instruction and accelerated programs. You can find the plan at Local AIG Plan

The Northampton County Schools has developed a website with information to help parents better to help parents better understand the AIG program. This describes how students will be identified and served across grades K-12. Visit Curriculum & Instruction/AIG

Services for AIG students may be provided by AIG personnel or within the regular classroom by teachers trained to meet the needs of gifted students.

There are other options for families to choose for their education:

Charter Schools

Charter schools are public schools of choice that are authorized by the State Board of Education and operated by independent non-profit boards of directors. State and local tax dollars are the primary funding sources for charter schools, which have open enrollment and cannot discriminate in admissions, associate with any religion or religious group, or charge-tuition. Charter schools operate with freedom from many of the regulations that govern district schools, but charter schools are held accountable through the State assessment and accountability system.

If you are interested in NC charter schools, visit NC charter school for information, resources, and contacts.
