

ASSIGNMENT OF STUDENTS TO CLASSES

In assigning student to classes, the following criteria shall be considered: age, social and emotional maturity, and achievement in relation t

So individual ability, in order to assure appropriate assignments.

Transfers in regular attendance at a prior school will usually be placed at the level to which they were previously assigned. However, in addition to prior grade level, the Board of Education may use tests to ascertain proper grade level.

Ref: Education Law §§1709; 2503(4); 3202

Adoption date: June 21, 1993