

PENALTIES

The range of penalties which may be imposed for violations of the student disciplinary code includes the following:

1. verbal warning
2. written warning
3. written notification to parent
4. probation
5. reprimand
6. detention
7. suspension from transportation
8. suspension from athletic participation
9. suspension from social or extracurricular activities
10. suspension of other privileges
11. exclusion from a particular class
12. in-school suspension
13. involuntary transfer
14. suspension

Counseling, although not considered a penalty, may be an alternative to the imposition of a penalty, provided that such counseling is formally procured through the Guidance Office.

Dangerous student behavior will be reported to the Superintendent. Dangerous behavior offenses will result in appropriate disciplinary action after the necessary investigation has occurred. Such discipline will be fair, immediate, and consistent with other district policies, including the Interscholastic Athletic Code, and be of such nature as to reflect accurately the seriousness of the offense. Discipline may include, but will not be limited to the following list of examples:

1. in-school suspension (ISS); alternative: after-school detention (ASD);
2. out-of-school suspension: a maximum of five (5) days per incident;
3. restrictions including forfeiture of privileges which shall consist of all non-credit bearing activities for a period of two weeks or longer as deemed appropriate by the Building Principal;
4. special projects;
5. reimbursement of monetary loss to the school;
6. exclusion from school upon the recommendation of the Superintendent of Schools to the Board of Education. Such exclusion shall occur only with the approval of the Board.

When a student's behavior presents a threat to himself/herself, to others, or to the maintenance of order in the school or on school property, the Principal may suspend the student from classes until the situation is resolved in accordance with due process.

The suspension of a student will be recorded on the student's discipline record.
