PROCESS: With the guidance of a music teacher, your child will choose a piece of approved music that will be performed at the 2024 NYSSMA Festival.

Please note: Music must be listed in the current NYSSMA manual (33rd edition). Two originals of the music piece are required. One is for the student and the second is for the judge at the festival to view during the performance. Music stores frequently run out of music early. Be sure to purchase ASAP. Photocopies will not be accepted. See copyright section of the NYSSMA Manual for additional information.

Before the festival takes place, students are encouraged to practice on their own and to work with their music teachers and private instructors so that they may prepare for this important performance. Please be reminded that most auditions are ten minutes in length and only percussionists and students performing on levels 5 and 6 are required to have a 15 minute audition.

Guidelines for filling out the 2024 NYSSMA
Solo and Ensemble Festival application form.

Voice Part – List the vocal part (ex. Alto) on which you will be performing.

Solo or Ensemble – Circle the “S” for Solo or “E” for Ensemble.

Level of Selection – List the music level that you will be performing. (Levels 1, 2, 3, or 4)

It is essential to the management and organization of the registration process that parents register their child as follows:

All registrations must be on the appropriate forms.

If your child is performing an instrumental and a vocal solo, they must register on separate forms and include separate checks.

If your child is registering for piano and any other solo festivals, they must register on separate forms and include separate checks.

Vocal forms must be returned to vocal teachers and separate instrumental forms must be returned to instrumental teachers.

COPYRIGHT: It is essential that every student come to the NYSSMA festival prepared with two copies of original (not photocopied) music. If the piece has no accompaniment part, this must be two identical original copies. Please check with your child's music teacher to ensure your child is properly prepared. NYSSMA must adhere to federal copyright laws.

ACCOMPANISTS: Accompanists spend many hours working on the music both alone and with the student. The ability of the accompanist can enhance the performance of the student. Students should consult with their teacher in engaging a skilled accompanist.

TRANSPORTATION: The music department will supply directions to the festival site. It is the responsibility of each student and parent to arrive at the festival site on their own. It is requested that all students arrive at their audition site no later than 20 minutes before their audition time. Students having transportation problems should notify their respective music teacher so that they may try to assist them in arranging a ride.

MEDALS: The Oyster Bay-East Norwich music staff are extremely excited to have your child participating in this very special competition and hope that they will be successful in this venture. Those students who receive high ratings will be rewarded with an official NYSSMA medal.

While students are not required to receive private instruction in order to attend NYSSMA, it is highly recommended. Our music staff can only provide limited support in this respect due to the primary importance of regular classroom instruction and the immense number of students involved.
