5. SUPERINTENDENT UPDATE

Dr. Perry gave an update on summer programming. We wrapped our summer ENL programming and our 5/6 summer programming last week. Both programs were well attended and the kids seemed to have a great experience. Our ESY program and our 7-12 program are continuing for the next two weeks. Regent's exams will be held next week. Our ESY program at Forest Park will continue until the middle of August. New teacher orientation started today. Thank you to Mr. Robilotti and administrative staff for putting this together. We are thankful for our new teachers. We have 18 alumni joining us.

6. NEW BUSINESS

Mr. Casey also attended new teacher orientation today and said it was well attended and went very well. Nice job to Mr. Robilotti and his team.

Mr. Ryan stated that they have finished the exterior walk-throughs of the buildings. Thank you to all those who attended. Everything looks good. The crew is doing a lot of good work and is on schedule for the start of school. He also inquired about updating signage, specifically in front of the high school.

Mr. Blakley wanted to say Congratulations to the South Colonie Friends of Theatre Arts for their wonderful production of Beauty and the Beast. Also, thank you to all of the volunteers who helped with the production. Welcome to all of our new teachers! Are 12U little league baseball team is traveling to Cooperstown next week, best of luck to them!

Mr. Mesick wanted to congratulate recent graduate Isabella Franchi who was named as a Capital District Sports Women of the Year. Well deserved!

Mr. Kiehle wanted to commend the volunteers and kids who participated in the Beauty and the Beast production. It was wonderful.
