Presented by Sagamore Middle School
English Department and the Sagamore Library

Choose at least three interesting books and start reading!

When you finish each book, write down the title, the author and a short summary.

After you have read three books, have a parent or guardian sign each journal at the bottom of this page.

Read as many books as you would like. Complete a journal for all books and return to your ELA teacher in September. Additional journals are available in the Main Office and on the Sagamore website. Participants will be invited to a special luncheon in the fall and prizes will be awarded to the top readers.

This is NOT the same as the mandatory summer reading.
