

The Do the Right Thing of Charlotte County award ceremony was held on Thursday, April 1, 2021 at the Military Heritage Museum. The following students were honored:

Ford Gainvors, Deep Creek Elementary School, Grade 4

Ford was honored for his kindness. He is fond of his elderly neighbor and is always worried about him getting to the store for food, so he put together, with his mom's help, a care package for him. Thank you, Ford for thinking of others.

Braydon Laroche, East Elementary School, Grade 5

Braydon was honored for his successful efforts in raising funds for the American Heart Association's Jump Rope for Heart program by using social media. Braydon participated in his school's program and set and met his goal, all while bringing awareness for the importance of healthy hearts. Thank you, Braydon for you thinking of others.

Samantha Mahler, Charlotte High School, Grade 11

Samantha was honored for organizing the SPARK Club drive to collect school supplies to donate to the children impacted by Dorian in the Bahamas. Thank you, Samantha for your kindness in helping others.
