The Do The Right Thing awards program was held on Thursday February 5, 2015 at 3:00 p.m., in the City Hall Council Chambers. The following students were honored:

Zachary Battaglia, an 11th grader at Charlotte High, was honored for his compassionate instincts. Zack works in a restaurant and saw a person who appeared down on his luck come into the restaurant to eat. The person ate the meal and left the restaurant unnoticed without paying for it. Zack offered to pay for the meal because he saw someone down on his luck. Zack's selfless offer came from his heart.

Anthony Jones, Jr., a 6th grader at Punta Gorda Middle, was honored for assisting a fellow student who was hit by a car while on the way to school. Anthony called for assistance and kept his friend calm until help arrived. Anthony is to be commended for staying calm and being there for his friend.

Kalani Carrion, a 7th grader at Murdock Middle, was honored for his honesty. He found $20 on the walkway at school and turned in the money to the main office.

Sam Spence, a 12th grader at Charlotte High, was honored for his honesty. When a fellow student left his wallet, cell phone, and earphones in the bathroom, Sam found the items and turned them into an administrator who returned the items to the rightful owner.

Ambrynn Julius, a 4th grader at Neil Armstrong Elementary, was honored for her honesty. She found money on the floor of a local restaurant and promptly picked it up and turned it over to the manager without even giving it a second thought.
