

The Do the Right Thing of Charlotte County award program was held on Thursday, February 1, 2018 in the Punta Gorda City Council Chambers. The following students were honored:

Samuel Garcia, Port Charlotte Middle School, Grade 8

Samuel was recognized for always doing the right thing for others. In addition to Samuel and his family preparing and delivering meals to others on Thanksgiving, he is always going out of his way to help teachers and fellow students while at school. Thank you Samuel for your smile, kind and caring ways.

Daniel Givens, Charlotte Harbor Center School, Grade 2

Daniel was recognized for being a great role model for his peers. He is always very helpful to his peers and teachers by assisting in a variety of ways. He is also empathetic to his peers and is polite and organized. Thank you Daniel for always being so helpful and responsible.

Diego Morales, Punta Gorda Middle School, Grade 8

Diego was recognized for his kind heart and willingness to help others. When two new students arrived at school from out of the country, he went out of his way to make them feel welcome. He offered to translate for them and to sit with them at lunch to show them the process. Thank you Diego for being reliable and your willingness to help others.

Jenesis Roberts, Port Charlotte Middle School, Grade 7

Jenesis was recognized for her willingness to help others. She is always the first one to step-up to help and is consistently looking for ways to assist others. Jenesis is respectful student and athlete who always displays a positive attitude. Thank you Jenesis for your willingness to help others.
