

Brielle Salatino, a second-grader at Deep Creek Elementary, Faith Bailey, a fifth-grader at Deep Creek Elementary, and Gracie Bailey, a second-grader at Deep Creek Elementary, were honored for their unselfish acts of each donating between 12 and 13 inches of hair to the Locks of Love Foundation. All three of these girls wanted to help young people who either don't have hair or need wigs due to an illness. I'm so proud of these girls and their unselfish hearts!

Konner Rivera, a sixth-grader at Murdock Middle, Konner was honored for trying to stop a fight at the bus stop between two students.

Kordell Slater, a twelfth-grader at Port Charlotte High, was honored for his assistance in reviving a student that was deemed unconscious with no vitals. Kordell retrieved a defibrillator to be utilized to restart the breathing process of the student and assisted the administration team, teachers, the nurse, fellow students, and law enforcement with his ability to deliver a life-saving device.
