

The Do the Right Thing of Charlotte County was held on October 7, 2021 at Military Heritage Museum. The following students were honored:

Anna Briscoe, Grade 11, Charlotte High School

Anna was honored for her involvement with Habitat for Humanity where she volunteered for 64 hours in one month during the height of the pandemic. Thank you, Anna.

Michael McComiskey, Grade 2, Sallie Jones Elementary

Michael was honored for his kindness and compassion for others. While at the grocery store he noticed a homeless man outside the store holding a sign asking for food. He spoke with the man and offered to bring him something to eat from the store. Michael selected food and a beverage and provided it to the man. Thank you, Michael.

Jaylynn Santacross, Grade 12, Lemon Bay High School

Jaylynn was honored for helping others. She goes out of her way every day to help others in need and also volunteers at many associations which focus on the well-being and needs of others. Thank you, Jaylynn.

Bryce Williams, Grade 6, Punta Gorda Middle School

Bryce was honored for being a best big brother to his siblings and for having a kind heart. Thank you, Bryce.
