

3. Imagery/figurative Language and include an example from the text then explain the effect of that device on the audience.

---

---

---

---

---

4. Features/layout/syntax identify an example of the author's use, cite the example, lastly discuss how and why these are helpful in promoting the author's purpose.

---

---

---

---

---

4. Imagery/figurative Language and include an example from the text then explain the effect of that device on the audience.

---

---

---

---

---

5. Features/layout/syntax identify an example of the author's use, cite the example, lastly discuss how and why these are helpful in promoting the author's purpose.

---

---

---

---

---

5. Imagery/figurative Language and include an example from the text then explain the effect of that device on the audience.

---

---

---

---

---

6. Features/layout/syntax identify an example of the author's use, cite the example, lastly discuss how and why these are helpful in promoting the author's purpose.

---

---

---

---

---

6. Imagery/figurative Language and include an example from the text then explain the effect of that device on the audience.

---

---

---

---

---

7. Features/layout/syntax identify an example of the author's use, cite the example, lastly discuss how and why these are helpful in promoting the author's purpose.

---

---

---

---

---

AICE Language Summer Work

Task Five

Title: _____

Author: _____ Format/genre: _____

Reading Journal – Write a short analysis in which you discuss the selection’s context, audience, and purpose.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Now that you have read your selection and written your opening paragraph on Audience, Purpose, Context, further analyze your document to identify:

9. Structure and include a quote from the text that serves as text evidence of its structure and explore why this structure is appropriate for the text and the purpose.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

10. Lexis/diction/connotation/tone and include a quote from the text that supports your analysis. Then share how this is helpful in fulfilling the purpose of the text.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

7. Imagery/figurative Language and include an example from the text then explain the effect of that device on the audience.

---

---

---

---

---

8. Features/layout/syntax identify an example of the author's use, cite the example, lastly discuss how and why these are helpful in promoting the author's purpose.

---

---

---

---

---