Creativity Club

This club will consist of a different theme each week in which students harness their creativity. Students will be introduced to poetry and create their own poem. Students will also use nature as a medium to create art as well as discover ways in which nature can be viewed as art. Students will also explore the use of vision boards. The goal for this club is to provide a positive environment for students to learn and to express themselves through their creativity.

Grades: 3, 4, 5

Day of the week: Thursday

Semesters: Semester 1 & 2
