School is Back in Session

Spirits were high as school opened on Monday, September 14. Lions at the Secondary School are shown both outside and inside the building. More photos from opening day on page 4.

Eight New Teachers Join District . . .

Several new staff have joined our district (see photo on page 12) as we begin a brand-new school year. Here is a little bit of information on each of them . . .

Tiffany (Crowe) Ransom has been hired as the new Spanish teacher at the Secondary School. She has 16 years of Spanish teaching experience at the 7-12 grade level. She also served as an adjunct professor at Finger Lakes Community College and Syracuse University.

Tiffany graduated from Clyde-Savannah High School. She earned her bachelor's degree at St. Bonaventure University and completed her master's degree at Iona College.

Mrs. Ransom and her husband, Ben, live in Ulysses, PA. She enjoys traveling, gardening, and watching football, especially the Buffalo Bills.

Gia George has been working in the district as a part-time teacher (.7) and part-time teacher assistant (.3) since 10/25/18. She is now a full-time physical education teacher effective 08/24/20.

She said, "I graduated from SUNY Cortland in 2017 and was employed at Whitesville Central School as a PE teacher for one year before coming to Wellsville."

Miss George hails from Portville. She likes watching and playing sports, reading, and traveling.

Sarah Haskins is our new seventh grade math teacher. She earned her master's degree in math education at SUNY Cortland. She also has 54 credits towards her doctorate degree in Northcentral University. She taught math for grades 7-12 for eight years at Gilbertsville-Mt.Upton School District, where she also won the Teacher of the Year Award. In addition, she served as a college professor for six years at Alfred State College, where she also won the Student Advocate Award.

Miss Haskins lives in Belfast. Her hobbies include gardening, kayaking, baking, and reading.

Victoria Koch joins the district as a 12:1:1 special education teacher for grades K-2. She graduated from Houghton College in 2019, and this is her first teaching job, although she has already served as a substitute teacher at the elementary, middle, and high school levels.

Tori is married and she and her husband, Samuel, live in Wellsville. She likes playing tennis, reading, and yoga. She also enjoys hanging out with her three cats, two dogs, and a bunny (rabbit).

Brooke Matalca is coming aboard as our new special education teacher at the Secondary School for grades 7-12. In addition to holding a certification to teach special education, she also earned a bachelor's degree in mathematics and is certified to teach math in grades 5-12.

Brooke resides in Greenwood with her daughter, Lylan Grace Hayes (13 months). Brooke's hobbies include crafting, baking, exercising, singing, and dancing.

Zack Waild is also a new special education teacher at the Secondary School. He earned a master's degree in inclusive adolescent education from SUNY Brockport. He has spent the last three years substitute teaching at various school districts in the area. Mr. Waild likes snowmobiling, riding ATVs, soccer, and hockey. He lives in Wellsville.

Alyssa Wixson is our new earth science teacher. She attended the University of Louisiana Monroe, where she earned her bachelor's degree. She is currently enrolled in a master's program through SUNY Empire.

Alyssa is married and lives in Friendship with her husband, Arron, and her seven-month-old daughter, Ava. Alyssa's hobbies are hiking, camping, singing, and playing guitar.

Adam Wolfley has been hired as the new physical education teacher at the Elementary School. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education/health at Canisius College in Buffalo. He is currently pursuing his master's degree at California University of Pennsylvania. He spent a year and a half at Bemus Point Central School District, where he taught physical education for grades 6-12 and health for grades 6, 7, and 10. He also spent three months at Christ the King School in Snyder, teaching physical education for grades PreK-8.

Adam lives in Scio. His hobbies include fishing, hunting, gardening, and home improvements. He also likes watching the Buffalo Bills, and he was a season ticket holder.

Hill is National Commended Student

Wellsville Secondary School Principal Mary Ellen O'Connell announced senior Alexa Hill (ABOVE) has been named as a Commended Student in the 2021 National Merit Scholarship Program. Alexa is holding her Letter of Commendation from the school and National Merit Scholarship Corporation, which conducts the program. She was one of 34,000 Commended Students in the nation recognized for their exceptional academic promise. These students placed in the top 50,000 scorers of more than 1.5 million who entered the 2021 competition by taking the 2019 Preliminary SAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.

Congratulations, Alexa!

Letter to Parents for School Meal Programs
Special Provision Options (Provision 2 Non-Base Year & Community Eligibility Provision)

Dear Parent or Guardian:

We are pleased to inform you that Wellsville Central School will continue the meal certification option available to schools participating in the National School Lunch and School Breakfast Programs for 2020 – 2021 school year.

What does this mean for your child(ren) attending the school(s) identified above?

All students enrolled at Wellsville Central School are eligible to receive a healthy breakfast and lunch at school at no charge to your household each day of the 2020-2021 school year. No further action is required of you. Your child(ren) will be able to participate in these meal programs without having to pay a fee or submit an application.

If you have any further questions, please contact us at 585-596-2111 or email bmeyers@wlsv.org.

Sincerely,

Bob Meyers

Cafeteria Manager

Wellsville Central School

Community Eligibility Provision (CEP) Provision 2 Non-base Year Household Income Eligibility FORM

Wellsville Central School is participating in the Community Eligibility Provision (CEP) or Provision 2 in a non-base year. All children in the school will receive meals/milk at no charge regardless of household income or completion of this form. This form is to determine eligibility for additional State and federal program benefits that your child(ren) may qualify for. Read the instructions on the back, complete only one form for your household, sign your name and return it to the school named above. Call 585-596-2111, if you need help.

1. List all children in your household who attend school:

Student Name	School	Grade/Teacher	Foster Child	No Income

Attention Seniors and Families of Seniors

School Counselor Lindsey Marcus will be meeting with seniors individually to help with future plans, successful completion of high school requirements and college applications. Families, if you wish to meet with your child's counselor, please feel free to call 596-2160 to make an appointment. We welcome your active involvement! Seniors, your college application should be ready for your counselor as soon as possible. Many college programs fill up early, (especially technical college programs, i.e. SUNY Alfred at Wellsville). If you have any questions about the college application process, please see guidance.

College-Bound Students

The ACT College Entrance Examination will be given at the Wellsville Secondary School on October 24, 2020, December 12, 2020 and June 12, 2021. You may apply online at: www.actstudent.org.

The SAT College Entrance Examination will be given at the Wellsville Secondary School on November 7, 2020, and March 13, 2021. You may apply online at: www.collegeboard.com.

Please see your counselor, if you are unsure about college testing requirements for your post-high school plans.
